JAPANESE IRIS:

Iris ensata

'Mt. Fuji'

Really brightens up the garden with its crisp, white blooms. Between May and June, large, snow-white flowers appear with a crepe-like texture that are truly worth raving about. Plus, each snowy bloom features a striking yellow throat and delicate veining!

Spotted Fever

33" EM

Bright yellow standards and falls w/brown and white rays and dots radiating out over ¾ of petals

Stellar Lights

Sugar Blues

36" RE, FR

Wisteria blue with yellow-tipped white beards and a sweet fragrance; excellent re-bloomer!

Iris ensata

'Pink Lady'

Blushing pink blossoms with curvy, lady-like edges make a bold statement when paired with deep purple tones. Each delicate petal is adorned with narrow, deep-pink veins and vibrant, lemony markings at their base.
